

PTO General Meeting
November 10, 2009

Meeting called to order at 6:13 pm

- I. Welcome (Charlene Bode)
- II. Approval of October 20, 2009 minutes.
- III. Principal's Report (Ms. Janice Dupuy)
 - A. Greeting
 - B. Several report cards were not claimed. Please notify teachers to schedule conferences.
 - C. Fall break was a success and enjoyed by all!
 - D. Hurricane Ida break was to ensure safety for students.
 - E. Code enforcement reminder: Parking tickets have been issued during drop-off and pick-up. Please be mindful when parking.
 - F. Cell phone recycling project – Phones will be issued to women of domestic abuse to make emergency calls. Parents, please bring cell phones to school for drop-off (or notify teachers if sending with students).
 - G. School Mall –
 1. Pamphlet of post cards
 2. Company will send catalog
 3. When online shopping, code may be used which gives Audubon a percentage of purchases
 - H. Nurse Martha is present from the Carrollton Campus. An H1N1 campaign is in effect to vaccinate students after Thanksgiving. This service is strictly voluntary. Parents must be present and sign consent.
 - I. Montessori training last week: 4 teachers are working towards certification.
 - J. French Director training in Canada (director and curriculum information)

PTO Board Meeting
November 10, 2009

IV. Fundraising Report (Jean Kijko and Jennifer McNamara)

- A. Need volunteers for Fall Fete, Saturday from 11am to 5pm
- B. Volunteers may sign up tonight or online
- C. Stop by to check out our pre-sale items Thursday at Carrollton and Broadway campuses from 2:30 to 6pm. Items include T-shirts and wristbands. Earn savings when purchasing wristbands at the pre-sale.
- D. Credit card machine will be available at the Fall Fete
- E. Consider bringing folding chairs, blankets, etc. for elderly or special needs family members or friends
- F. Pick-up truck needed Saturday to transport water from Whole Foods
- G. Desserts and paper products are needed.

V. Extracurricular Activities (Daliah Wolfson)

We wish to attend to the interests of our families and to provide interesting activities for all. We will begin working with local musicians/artists to find fun activities for our children. Please email me with any suggestions at daliahb@bellsouth.net.

VI. Other announcements

- A. Mad Science has been cancelled this semester. (Charlene Bode)
- B. Campbell's Soup labels: Please save soup labels or tops of V8 juice. (Todd Taylor)
- C. FAME meeting is this Saturday at 9am. All are invited to attend. (Ben Comer)
- D. Annual giving reminding: Any amount is appreciated. Our goal is 100% participation. (Ben Comer)

Meeting adjourned at 6:39pm.